Representation of Mr.S.Venkatrangam.

Government Order No.6772-3-C.B.255-21-10, dated the 1st May 1922 has thoroughly disheartened and dispirited me.

2. The Deputy Commissioner's charge against me was:- " his reports were often wanting in thoroughness and showed a tendency to skip over important matters."

3. Unfortunately for me, my explanations on this charge have not been found acceptable by Government.

4. I am confident that Government will themselves agree that the punishment awarded is unduly severe for the above charge.

5. The Government order shows, however, that other circumstances have been allowed to prejudice my case and that I have been punished for matters that did not stand part of the charge.

6. I pray that the protection vouchsafed even to an accused in a Criminal Court may be granted to me in my present distracted condition and that nothing that I said in my defence may be used against me.

7. I beg leave, nevertheless, to express my sincere regret if I have exceeded the limits of official decorum in stating my explanation.

8. I pray therefore that if Government hold my explanation in respect of the Deputy Commissioner's charge not acceptable, the order may graciously be revised so as to make the punishment commensurate with the charge.

9. Even if Government should not be pleased to accord a gracious reconsideration and revision of the order, I pray that I may at least be protected from losing my relative rank in the list of Assistant Commissioners, although I may lose Rs.300/- by the deferred promotion.

10. I learn that there are now three vacancies in the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners available.

11. I am third in the list of ordinary Assistant Commissioners.

12. I pray that I may be given one of the vacancies, without being superseded by my juniors and thus punished twice over.

The papers containing the recent orders about Mr Venkatarangam are put up. His promotion to the 1st Class was due from 29 Jan 1921 & has his name from 29 Jan 1922. Two of his juniors have meanwhile got their promotion from 5th & 10th Jan 1922 — so that at the present moment, judged by date of promotion to present pay, he has lost two places. It would however be equitable to restore the Comptr when his name above these two in the Civil list.

The file of papers about certain fasting promotions to the passed Senior Asstt Comrs is put up. It is proposed there that in view of the recent warning administered to Mr Venkatarangam might be passed over in favour of Mr B. Krishnayya and this has been agreed to by the Members. If this warning is not to be taken into consideration in connection with the promotion, & if his place is to be above the two who got their 1st place earlier, then the two promotions would be to
